

Professional CPD Seminar Series - WATCH OUT your tax matters

Ignorance may cause the effort of any persons for nothing at the expenses of their mental health

Objectives

For the past 2 years, the chaos especially caused by COVID-19 caused every business hit the hardest. Every person, especially the entrepreneurs of SME – FRS, has tried hard to recover their loss. On the other hand, however, they may overlook or even neglect their tax matters on which ignorance may also cause devastating impact on their business.

This seminar aims to help attendees BEWARE the importance of compliance provisions and penalty provisions (should be regarded as “weapons” invoked by the Hong Kong tax authority) of Hong Kong Inland Revenue Ordinance and how to response such “weapons” in case of suffering from various tax issues

Content

- Compliance provisions of Inland Revenue Ordinance
- Consequences of non-compliance and violations with illustrative cases
- How to response the above-mentioned “weapons” in case of any issues – to decide your success or failure

Who Should Attend

The course will be of interest to auditors, accountants and management in commercial firms, lawyers, students and other interested parties who should beware the tax compliance and penalty matters

Speaker Profile

Alan Cheng (Alan) began his tax career in Big 4. He has acquired the practicing certificate in 2007 and started practising on his own since 2010. He has extensive experience in handling profits tax and personal tax issues on behalf of local and expatriate clients (objection, additional tax, prosecution etc.).

Alan has been the Taxation Committee Member of the Society of Chinese Accountants and Auditors (SCAA) (香港華人會計師公會) since 2011. He has also been the author of newspaper articles of Hong Kong Economic Journal to comment on the tax court case and Hong Kong tax policy.
